

Elena M Ferrante

September 5, 1958 - November 11, 2024

Elena M. Ferrante of Sparkill, New York passed away after a long illness on November 11, 2024 at the age of 66. Elena was her mother and father's first child and the joy of their lives.

Elena was suddenly predeceased in February 2024 by her adoring domestic partner Michael Wallace, whom she loved. She is survived by her loving sisters, Laura Ferrante (Richard Weissberg) and Elizabeth Neville, nephews, Matthew Capuano, Conor Neville (Meg Neville) and niece Reilly Neville, great nieces, Eleanor Neville and Camila Capuano and stepmother, Joyce Ferrante as well as many beloved pets.

Elena graduated from Tappan Zee high school in Orangeburg, NY and Fordham University in the Bronx where she majored in business. She was employed in the field of pharmaceutical sales for many years, and then later became an entrepreneur and real estate broker in upstate New York where she ran her own company, Vanda Properties.

What made Elena happiest in life was the mutual love of her beloved pets. Throughout most of her life she raised many unique and exotic breeds of dogs and cats. She and Mike enjoyed growing beautiful orchids and conserving the land through forestry and farming. Elena also had exquisite taste in the finer things in life- she loved designer everything, vintage movies, and antiques.

She was our family's historian and keeper of memories. She had a sharp wit, an incredible memory, a keen sense of humor and a loyal love for family and friends. She will be remembered and missed by all who knew her.
